

Come for a cocktail. Stay for a career!

A local job can take your career far!

Want to know more? On Monday, April 29th, LOCALiQ is hosting an exclusive open house for qualified sales pros! We invite you to drop by and introduce yourself between 4:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. that evening! This invitation only event will provide the chance to learn and see what we're doing at LOCALiQ - and where you could fit in. Of course, we'll provide the drinks! In a relaxed, casual setting, attendees will get to meet recruiters, members of the leadership and sales team, all while learning about our marketing solutions, clients, culture and more!
